Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 13, 2022
Sing praise to the LORD with the harp,
with the harp and melodious song.
— Psalm 98:5

We at Saint Joseph are a worshiping multi-cultural community, called to share our diverse God-given gifts, in order to grow in holiness and oneness, through the celebration of the Eucharist, preaching of the word, charitable service, and ongoing spiritual formation and conversion. We are brothers and sisters in Christ, led by the Holy Spirit, to witness God's Good News to all.

Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time November 13

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Last week I began the theme of "Stewardship."
A steward is a person who manages the affairs of a household or an estate for the owner. For a Christian a steward is the manager of the affairs of God on earth. Those who engage in this activity are engaged in "Stewardship." Jesus taught on this issue in his parables about the expectations God has of us in caring for what He has given to us. It first comes with our relationship with each other as brothers and sisters, as children of God and members of His Church. For me, the youngest of 12 children, I learned first-hand what it meant to belong and to care for what we held in common. Mom and Dad cooperated with God and made a family. Mom and Dad worked hard to provide for themselves and their 12 children. As each of us grew and matured, we took on more responsibility. Because we belonged to the family and we contributed to the need, we all had to do our part so that the family would grow and survive. We all had to clean up after ourselves, we all had specific chores and responsibilities. When each one started to work, they had to contribute to the house-hold expenses. When we started to drive, we took on more adult responsibilities lending a hand to advance the care and unity of the family. Everyone had a hand in the life of the family. With 7 sisters, 7 days of the week, each had kitchen duty once-a-week. The 5 boys had to clean their own rooms and do all the yard work and take care of all the pets. We were a big family, and in the eyes of the world, we were considered almost poor. In the midst of all the business there had to be time for family prayers and active membership in the life of the parish. There were prayers groups, youth group, volunteer for choir, altar serving, teach catechism, lecturing at Mass, extra-ordinary Eucharistic Ministry. You name it, we were a part of it. And, yes, Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation. I remember one day I walked into my mom's room while she was working on the family check book. I asked her what she was doing. She told me she was praying about how much we would give to the church when we go to Mass on Sunday. She taught me that we give to show our thankfulness to God for what He has given to us at home and at church. Then she wrote a check, placed it carefully in the donation envelope, sealed it, and placed it in her purse for safe keeping till Sunday Mass. As a little boy that teaching moment was profound for me. How do you prayerfully count your blessings and give thanks to God? Do you carefully prepare your gift, wrap it, and keep it safe for Sunday Mass?
May God's gifts to you be abundant,
Fr. Steven Guitron

Trigésimo Tercer Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario Noviembre 13

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,
La semana pasada comencé el tema de "Mayordomia" Un mayordomo es una persona que administra los asuntos de un hogar o una patrimonio para el propietario.Para un cristiano, un mayordomo es el administrador de los asuntos de Dios en la tierra. Aquellos que participan en esta actividad se dedican a la "Mayordomia" Jesús enseñó sobre este tema en sus parábolas acerca de las expectativas que Dios tiene de nosotros al cuidar lo que Él nos ha dado. Primero viene con nuestra relación entre nosotros como hermanos y hermanas, como hijos de Dios y miembros de Su Iglesia. Para mí, el menor de 12 hijos, Aprendí de primera mano lo que significaba pertenecer y cuidar lo que teníamos en común. Mamá y papá cooperaron con Dios e hicieron una familia. Mamá y papá trabajaron duro para mantenerse a sí mismos y a sus 12 hijos. A medida que cada uno de nosotros crecía y maduraba, asumimos más responsabilidad. Porque pertenecíamos a la familia y contribuíamos a la necesidad, Todos tuvimos que hacer nuestra parte para que la familia creciera y sobreviviera. Todos tuvimos que limpiar después de nosotros mismos, Todos teníamos tareas y responsabilidades específicas. Cuando cada uno comenzó a trabajar, Tenían que contribuir a los gastos de mantenimiento de la casa. Cuando empezamos a conducir, Asumimos más responsabilidades adultas echando una mano para promover el cuidado y la unidad de la familia. Todos tenían una mano en la vida de la familia. Con 7 hermanas, 7 dias de la semana, Cada uno tenía servicio de cocina una vez a la semana. Los 5 niños tuvieron que limpiar sus propias habitaciones y hacer todo el trabajo de jardinería y cuidar de todas las mascotas. Éramos una gran familia, y a los ojos del mundo, Nos consideraban casi pobres. En medio de todos los asuntos tenía que haber tiempo para las oraciones familiares y la membresía activa en la vida de la parroquia. Había grupos de oración, grupo de jovenes, voluntarios para el coro, servidores del altar, enseñar catecismo, lectores en misa, Ministerio extraordinario de la Eucaristia. Lo que fuera, Fuimos parte de ello. Y, sí, Misa dominical y días santos de precepto. Recuerdo que un día entré en la habitación de mi madre mientras trabajaba en la chequera familiar. Le pregunté qué estaba haciendo. Ella me dijo que estaba orando acerca de cuánto daremos a la iglesia cuando vayamos a misa el domingo. Ella me enseñó que damos para mostrar nuestro agradecimiento a Dios por lo que Él nos ha dado en casa y en la iglesia. Luego escribió un cheque, lo colóco cuidadosamente en el sobre de donación, lo selló, y lo colocó en su bolso para guardarlo hasta la misa dominical. Cuando era niño, ese momento de enseñanza fue profundo para mí. ¿Cómo cuentas tus bendiciones con espíritu de oración y das gracias a Dios? ¿Preparas cuidadosamente tu regalo? lo guardas y mantienes seguro para la misa del domingo?
Que los dones de Dios para tí séan abundantes,
Fr. Steven Guitron

Fly safely this holiday season

If you are traveling to visit family or friends this Thanksgiving, these tips from the American Academy of Pediatrics can help you prepare for smooth and safe flights. Allow your family extra time to get through airport security. Talk to your children about the screening process ahead of time so they know what to expect and what to do. If for some reason you, or your children, are selected for further screening for some reason, stand close by so you can see one another during the process. For more information, visit healthychildren.org/English/safety-prevention/on-the-go/Pages/Travel-Safety-Tips.

¿SABIA USTED?

Viaje con seguridad en esta temporada de fiestas

Si viaja para visitar a familiares o amigos el Día de Acción de Gracias, estos consejos de la Academia Estadounidense de Pediatría pueden ayudarle a prepararse para vuelos tranquilos y seguros. Asegúrese de que su familia tenga tiempo extra para pasar por el control de seguridad del aeropuerto. Hable con sus hijos sobre el proceso de revisión con anticipación para que sepan qué esperar y qué hacer. Si por alguna razón usted o sus hijos son seleccionados para una revisión adicional, manténgase cerca para que todos puedan verse todo el tiempo que dure el proceso.
