Seventeenth
Sunday in Ordinary Time

We at Saint Joseph are a worshipping multi-cultural community, called to share our diverse God-given gifts, in order to grow in holiness and oneness, through the celebration of the Eucharist, preaching of the word, charitable service, and ongoing spiritual formation and conversion. We are brothers and sisters in Christ, led by the Holy Spirit, to witness God's Good News to all.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 24th

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we continue in this season of Ordinary Time, let us do a little review. Recall that Jesus sent out 72 disciples with His authority to preach, heal the sick and to drive out demons. Then a scholar of the law, not one of the 72, asked Jesus, "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus begins to teach what is the everyday, practical, living discipleship. We must know God's law – "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." Jesus then gives us the example of the "Good Samaritan." Have you taken time to reflect on how you are the good Samaritan to others and how you allow Jesus to be the good Samaritan to you? Last week we were at the home of Martha and Mary. Recall that Jesus said that Mary has chosen the better part. What was the better part? Mary made sure that time with Jesus was the one thing that was necessary. If she did not spend time to learn from Jesus, how would she be able to do anything else. We saw how Martha lost sight of who she was serving and why she was doing it. That is why Martha was distracted and not able to see her purpose. Each of us must develop the prayer life of Mary so that we can be of service to others. I have known so many husbands and wives who would not see the point of praying individually and together. Too many times these same couples would not share the same values and would be seeing by their children as divided. One would eventually ridicule the other who would spend time in prayer. This is one way that the devil divides families – he gets you to take your sight off of Jesus and that is how marriage and family unity breaks down. Have you made a plan to spend deliberate time in prayer both privately and with your spouse and family? When you do this, the everyday tasks do not become a bother and you will be willing to do for others out of love for Jesus. And today Jesus teaches us the root of our prayer life – the "Our Father." Have you ever, slowly and deliberately prayed the "Our Father," contemplating each phrase? It gives us a good model of how to use time in prayer. Jesus also teaches us to be persistent in prayer, not just praying sometimes. When I ask people, "Do you Pray?" The response I often get is – "I try." Then I follow up with – "Are you successful when you try?" Often the response I get is, "not always." Pray about the real stuff of your life as well as praying for others. Our weekly Gospel reading teaches us so much that is practical for our everyday relationship with God and with our neighbors.

God bless you all,
Fr. Steven Guitron

Decimoséptimo Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario Julio 24

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

A medida que continuamos en esta temporada del Tiempo Ordinario, hagamos un pequeño repaso. Recuerde que Jesús envió a 72 discípulos con Su autoridad para predicar, curar a los enfermos y expulsar a los demonios. Luego un estudioso de la ley, ni uno de los 72, le pregunto a Jesús, "¿Qué debo hacer para heredar la vida eterna?" Jesús comienza a enseñar lo que es diario vivir, cotidianamente un discipulado practico. Debemos conocer la ley de Dios- "Amarás al Señor tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con todo tu ser, con todas tus fuerzas, y con toda tu mente, y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo." Jesús entonces nos da el ejemplo del "Buen Samaritano." ¿Te has tomado el tiempo para reflexionar sobre cómo eres el buen samaritano para los demás y cómo permites que Jesús sea el buen samaritano para ti? La semana pasada estuvimos en la casa de Marta y María. Recuerde que Jesús dijo que María ha elegido la mejor parte. ¿Cuál fue la mejor parte? María se aseguró de que el tiempo con Jesús fuera lo único que era necesario. Si ella no pasaba tiempo para aprender de Jesús, cómo sería capaz de hacer otra cosa. Vimos cómo Marta perdió de vista a quién estaba sirviendo y por qué lo estaba haciendo. Es por eso que Marta estaba distraída y no podía ver su propósito. Cada uno de nosotros debe desarrollar la vida de oración de María para que podamos servir a los demás. He conocido a tantos esposos y esposas que no verían el sentido de orar individualmente y juntos. Demasiadas veces estas mismas parejas no compartirían los mismos valores y estarían viendo a sus hijos como divididos. Uno eventualmente ridiculizaría al otro que pasaría tiempo en oración. Esta es una forma en que el diablo divide a las familias- él te hace quitar la vista de Jesús y así es como el matrimonio y la unidad familiar se rompen. ¿Ha hecho un plan para pasar tiempo deliberado en oración tanto en privado como con su cónyuge y familia? Cuando haces esto, las tareas cotidianas no se convierten en una molestia y estarás dispuesto a hacer por los demás por amor a Jesús. Y hoy Jesús nos enseña la raíz de nuestra vida de oración- "El Padre Nuestro," alguna vez, rezaba lenta y deliberadamente el "Padre Nuestro," contemplando cada frase? Nos da un buen modelo de cómo usar el tiempo en oración. Jesús también nos enseña a ser persistentes en la oración, no solo orar a veces. Cuando le pregunto a la gente, usted reza? La respuesta que recibo a menudo es- "lo intento" Luego hago un seguimiento con- "¿Tienes éxito cuando lo intentas? A menudo, la respuesta que obtengo es, "no siempre." Ora acerca de las cosas reales de tu vida, así como ora por los demás. Nuestra lectura semanal del Evangelio nos enseña mucho que es práctico para nuestra relación cotidiana con Dios y con nuestro prójimo.

Dios los bendiga a todos,
Fr. Steven Guitron

Preventing heatstroke in hot cars

As temperatures heat up this summer, it is critical for parents to remember to take children out of the car every time they park and turn off the engine. Leaving a child alone in a car can lead to serious injury or death. This is especially true in hot weather: a car can heat up 19 degrees in just 10 minutes. Cracking a window is not enough to solve the problem. Leaving a purse or phone — or even a shoe — in the backseat can be a reminder about children who may fall asleep on car rides. For more information, visit <https://www.safekids.org/heatstroke>.

¿SABIA USTED?

Prevención de golpe de calor en autos calientes

A medida que aumentan las temperaturas este verano, es fundamental que los padres de familia recuerden sacar a los niños del automóvil cada vez que se estacionan y apagan el motor. Dejar a un niño solo en un automóvil puede provocar lesiones graves o la muerte. Esto es especialmente cierto en climas cálidos: un automóvil puede calentarse 19 grados en solo 10 minutos. Romper una ventana no es suficiente para resolver el problema. Dejar una cartera o un teléfono, o incluso un zapato en el asiento trasero, puede ser un recordatorio de que los niños podrían haberse quedado dormidos en los viajes en automóvil. Para obtener más información, visite <https://www.safekids.org/heatstroke>.
