PENTECOST SUNDAY
June 5th

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

“Shout out your joy and let the world see your gladness for the Lord is with us again. Now he is risen, and the Spirit is given, and He’s promised to stay till the end. His love is great so don’t let your hearts become troubled, though you seem lost and overcome by the world. He has returned and once again He has loved us giving us all a new birth. Shout out your joy...!” Today we conclude the 50 days of our Easter Season with the celebration of the promise of the Father and the Son - the Holy Spirit sent and given. As Jesus promised his disciples, the Holy Spirit would remind them of all that he taught them.

The Holy Spirit would impart gifts so that the disciples would be bold witnesses to the ends of the earth of all that they had witnessed. You and I are also given the Holy Spirit so we can be witnesses to the world. Our participation every Sunday in the Holy Mass nurtures the gifts we have received. It is the Word that continues to teach us, so we know how to live, and it is the Eucharist that nourishes us to be the strong and faithful witness of the Gospel. As the Baptized, our first responsibility is to go into the world as witnesses.

This witness is given to your family and friends, to your neighbors, to your co-workers, your fellow students, to the stranger. You are witnesses through the words you choose to speak, by the way you dress, how you spend your time and your money. As Jesus told us in the Gospel: “You are my friends if you do what I command you... I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain... This I command you: love one another.” Yes, this is what we are called to do. There are some who are also called to take up service in a particular ministry by serving their brothers and sisters as we gather here at Saint Joseph’s Parish. According to the gifts that we have received we must put them at the service of others. Here at Saint Joseph’s many, over the years have used their gifts to be of service to the parish community. In some of the ministries the numbers have grown, but in others the numbers have dwindled because of age, health, some have moved away, and some have died. It is time for many of you to discern your gifts that the Holy Spirit has endowed you with and put them to use in service of your fellow parishioners. I call the young men of the parish to consider service at the altar. If you have received your First Holy Communion, then come forth. I call men and women who are fully initiated and who have the gifts to serve the parish community as a Lector; come forward. If are baptized then discern the gifts of the Spirit to serve as an Usher, Choir Member or Sacristan. Some have been given certain gifts so as to serve as a Catechist, Parish Council Member or a Finance Council Member or to be of service to the needy on our community through the St. Vincent de Paul ministry. Come forth. When you hear the invitation – RESPOND! Let us continue to build up the Kingdom of God right here at Saint Joseph’s Parish. SHOUT OUT YOUR JOY!

Rejoice in the Holy Spirit, Alleluia!

Fr. Steven Guitron

Domingo de Pentecostés
Junio 5

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

"Grita tu alegría y deja que el mundo vea tu alegría porque el Señor está con nosotros de nuevo. Ahora ha resucitado, y el Espíritu es dado, y ha prometido quedarse hasta el final. Su amor es grande, así que no dejes que tus corazones se turben, aunque parezcas perdido y vencido por el mundo. Él ha regresado y una vez más nos ha amado dándonos a todos un nuevo nacimiento. Grita tu alegría...!" Hoy concluimos los 50 días de nuestro tiempo de Pascua con la celebración de la promesa del Padre y del Hijo, el Espíritu Santo enviado y dado. Como Jesús prometió a sus discípulos, el Espíritu Santo les recordaría todo lo que les enseñó.

El Espíritu Santo impartiría dones para que los discípulos fueran testigos audaces hasta los confines de la tierra de todo lo que habían presenciado. A ti y a mí también se nos da el Espíritu Santo para que podamos ser testigos del mundo. Nuestra participación cada domingo en la Santa Misa nutre los dones que hemos recibido. Es la Palabra que nos sigue enseñando, para que sepamos vivir, y es la Eucaristía la que nos nutre para ser el testimonio fuerte y fiel del Evangelio. Como los bautizados, nuestra primera responsabilidad es ir al mundo como testigos. Este testimonio se da a tu familia y amigos, a tus vecinos, a tus compañeros de trabajo, a tus compañeros estudiantes, al extraño. Ustedes son testigos a través de las palabras que eligen hablar, por la forma en que te vistes, cómo gastas tu tiempo y tu dinero. Como Jesús nos dijo en el Evangelio: "Ustedes son mis amigos si hacen lo que yo les ordeno... Yo que te elegí y te designé para ir y dar fruto que permanecerá ... Esto te mando: ámense unos a otros." Si, esto es lo que estamos llamados a hacer. Hay algunos que también están llamados a tomar el servicio en un ministerio particular sirviendo a sus hermanos y hermanas mientras nos reunimos aquí en la Parroquia de San José. De acuerdo con los dones que hemos recibido debemos ponerlos al servicio de los demás. Aquí en San Jose muchos, a lo largo de los años han utilizado sus dones para servir a la comunidad parroquial. En algunos de los ministerios el número ha crecido, pero en otros los números han disminuido debido a la edad, salud, algunos se han mudado, y algunos han muerto. Es hora de que muchos de ustedes discernan sus dones con los que el Espíritu Santo los ha dotado y los pongan en uso al servicio de sus compañeros feligreses. Llamo a los jóvenes de la parroquia a considerar el servicio en el altar. Si han recibido tu Primera Comunión.

Llamo a los hombres y mujeres que están plenamente iniciados y que tienen los dones para servir a la comunidad parroquial como lectores; adelante. Si son bautizados, entonces discernan los dones del Espíritu para servir como Ujier, Miembro del Coro o Sacristán. A algunos se les han dado ciertos dones para servir como Catequista, Miembro del Consejo Parroquial o miembro del Consejo de Finanzas o para servir a los necesitados de nuestra comunidad a través del ministerio de San Vicente de Paúl. Salga. Cuando escuche la invitación- RESPONDA!

Sigamos edificando el Reino de Dios aquí mismo, en la Parroquia de San José. GRITA TU ALEGRÍA! Regocíjense en el Espíritu Santo, Aleluya!
