Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time October 31, 2021

You shall love the LORD, your God,
with all your heart,
and with all your soul,
and with all your strength.
— Deuteronomy 6:5

We at Saint Joseph are a worshipping multi-cultural community, called to share our diverse God-given gifts, in order to grow in holiness and oneness, through the celebration of the Eucharist, preaching of the word, charitable service, and ongoing spiritual formation and conversion. We are brothers and sisters in Christ, led by the Holy Spirit, to witness God's Good News to all.

Thirty First Sunday in Ordinary Time,
October 31th

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we move forward on our journey as the parish family of Saint Joseph, in this unprecedented time, it is important for us to take pause to give thanks for what we have. This very act of thanksgiving is commemorated every year in our country – “Thanksgiving Day,” this year on November 25th. When I arrived here at Saint Joseph Parish I was amazed at such a beautiful church, beautiful property with ample space and plenty of meeting rooms. Believe me, I have been in parishes where there was not even enough space to breath. If you were not the first 30 cars to pull into the parking-lot you had to be ready to walk one or two blocks or a quarter of a mile to get to the church. Even to celebrate Mass outside we did not have to sacrifice any parking spaces to have space for Mass. When Saint Joseph was built it was intended to be a true home for the faithful. I am sure many of the families of Saint Joseph love their spiritual home and are thankful for their parents and grand-parents who had a hand in building it into what it is today. Back in the day it was understood what stewardship was. The reality is that all of us have this spiritual home because of the generous sacrifice of love for God and His Church that so many had in the generations before us. They wanted a place to worship, to study, to gather as a local church community and build that kingdom of God right here in Pomona. Because Saint Joseph was where many came to baptize their children, receive the Sacrament of Confession, make their First Holy Communion, Confirmation, and enter into the Sacrament of Marriage; where many were anointed with the Oils of the Sick and many that were ushered into eternal life with the celebration of their funeral Mass. Many who were part of this parish gave their lives back to the Church to serve as priests and religious men and women. For countless numbers Saint Joseph was a place of refuge where they came to find peace, shed some tears and create moments of great memories in the very presence of God. For all this to happen many had to give of their time, sharing what they had, as it was needed, for Saint Joseph to live and breathe. Many new comers have joined our parish family as spiritual refugees and have given so much to help us maintain our parish in this most difficult of times. For any home to be provided for, the family must give of their treasure in prayer, sacrifice and thanksgiving. Stewardship is recognizing what has been given to us and the price it cost as we share in it and hand it on better than we found it for the those who look for the same that we found here at Saint Joseph Catholic Church. Time has certainly changed so much since the founding of Saint Joseph Parish. I wish to reflect with you for a few weeks what it takes for Saint Joseph Parish, in 2021, to live and breath. Who are you in relationship to your parish? How do you help care for what we have received, for what we share in, and what we will give to the next generation?

God Reward You,
Fr. Steven Guitron

Trigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Octubre 31

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

A medida que avanzamos en nuestro camino como la familia parroquial de San José, en este tiempo sin precedentes, es importante que hagamos una pausa para dar gracias por lo que tenemos. Este mismo acto de acción de gracias se conmemora cada año en nuestro país- “Día de Acción de Gracias” este año el 25 de noviembre. Cuando llegué aquí a la parroquia de San José, me sorprendió una iglesia tan hermosa, hermosa propiedad con amplio espacio y muchas salas de reuniones. Créeme, He estado en parroquias donde ni siquiera había suficiente espacio para respirar. Si no eran los primeros 30 autos en llegar al estacionamiento, tenían que estar listos para caminar una o dos cuadras o un cuarto de milla para llegar a la iglesia. Incluso para celebrar la Misa afuera no tuvimos que sacrificar ningún espacio de estacionamiento para tener espacio para la Misa. Cuando se construyó San José, estaba destinado a ser un verdadero hogar para los fieles. Estoy seguro de que muchas de las familias de San José aman su hogar espiritual y están agradecidos por sus padres y abuelos que tuvieron una mano en la construcción de lo que es hoy. En su día se entendió lo que era la mayordomía. La realidad es que todos nosotros tenemos este hogar espiritual debido al generoso sacrificio de amor por Dios y Su Iglesia que tantos tuvieron en las generaciones anteriores a nosotros. Querían un lugar para adorar, para estudiar, para reunirse como una comunidad de la iglesia local y construir ese reino de Dios aquí en Pomona. Porque San José fue donde muchos vinieron a bautizar a sus hijos, Recibir el Sacramento de la Confesión, hacer su Primera Comunión, Confirmación, y entrar en el Sacramento del Matrimonio; donde muchos fueron ungidos con los Óleos de los Enfermos y muchos que fueron introducidos en la vida eterna con la celebración de su misa fúnebre. Muchos de los que formaron parte de esta parroquia devolvieron sus vidas a la Iglesia para servir como sacerdotes y religiosos y religiosas. Para innumerables personas, San José era un lugar de refugio donde venían a buscar la paz, derramar algunas lágrimas y crear momentos de grandes recuerdos en la misma presencia de Dios. Para que todo esto sucediera muchos tenían que dar de su tiempo, compartiendo lo que tenían, ya que era necesario, para que San José viva y respire. Muchos recién llegados se han unido a nuestra familia parroquial como refugiados espirituales y han dado mucho para ayudarnos a mantener nuestra parroquia en este momento tan difícil. Para cualquier hogar a proveer para la familia debe dar de su tesoro en oración, sacrificio y acción de gracias. La mayordomía es reconocer lo que se nos ha dado y el precio que costó a medida que compartimos en él y lo entregamos mejor de lo que lo encontramos para aquellos que buscan lo mismo que encontramos aquí en la Iglesia Católica de San José. El tiempo ciertamente ha cambiado mucho desde la fundación de la Parroquia de San José. Deseo reflexionar con ustedes durante unas semanas lo que se necesita para la Parroquia de San José en 2021, para vivir y respirar. ¿Quién eres tú en relación con tu parroquia? ¿Cómo ayuda a cuidar lo que hemos recibido, por lo que compartimos y que daremos a la próxima generación?

Dios te recompense,
Fr. Steven Guitron

The importance of maintaining emotional boundaries

As safe adults we have a responsibility to set healthy emotional boundaries with the children in our care, most importantly because we are helping to guide a child's development. In no way does this mean that adult-child relationships must be cold or uncaring. By maintaining healthy emotional boundaries, we as adults act as role models for other adults and for children themselves. For example, there is a big difference between being friendly and being friends with a child. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Emotional Boundaries" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿SABIA USTED?

La importancia de mantener los límites emocionales

Como adultos seguros, tenemos la responsabilidad de establecer límites emocionales saludables con los niños a nuestro cuidado, sobre todo porque estamos ayudando a guiar el desarrollo de un niño. De ninguna manera esto significa que las relaciones entre adultos y sus hijos deben ser frías o indiferentes. Al mantener límites emocionales saludables, nosotros, como adultos, actuamos como modelos a seguir para otros adultos y para los mismos niños. Por ejemplo, existe una gran diferencia entre ser amigable y ser amigo de un niño. Para obtener más información, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® "Emotional Boundries" (Límites emocionales) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
