Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. April 10th

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Today we begin the most solemn week of the Church year, Holy Week. Today we commemorate the triumphant entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. In ancient and biblical times palm branches were a sign of victory. In ancient Olympic games a crown of palm branches were awarded to the victors. When a king triumphantly entered into his city, palm branches were waved at him. The crowds so hopefully wanted a king to deliver them from the Roman yoke and they were hoping that Jesus would be the one to finally conquer the Romans.
Many Catholics have the custom of placing the blessed palm branches in their home or even in their car. Do these palm branches that we so proudly display hail Jesus as king by the way we live our daily lives? Recall that the same people who hailed Jesus as their king by waving palm branches at him, just a few days later were so easily convinced to yell out "crucify him." Are we easily convinced to do the same? What a great reminder and spiritual help for us throughout the year. Perhaps you still have last year's palm branch in your prayer space at home or at work to help you always remember to hail Jesus as your King. Tomorrow, Monday of Holy Week, Archbishop Gomez will celebrate the annual Chrism Mass at the Cathedral of Our Lady, Queen of the Angeles, livestreamed on facebook.com/lacatholics. This Mass is celebrated in our Mother Church by our Archbishop.
Those who cannot travel to the Cathedral this year may participate from our homes in solidarity as the Church. Traditionally, during this Mass, the priests renew their vows with the Archbishop, the people gathered are asked to pray for the clergy. Also, the Archbishop will bless the three oils that will be used in the celebration of the sacraments throughout the year. The Oil of Chrism – used in Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. The Oil of Catechumen – used in Baptism. The Oil of the Sick – used in the Sacrament of the Sick.
As the priests renew their vows with the Archbishop, and as he is the one who blesses the Oils, the ministry of the Archbishop, as the chief shepherd of the local Church of Los Angeles, is present in the Sacramental Life of the Church. Following the Chrism Mass these Oils will be brought to Saint Joseph for use throughout the year. The Triduum, the celebration of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, is the commemoration of the Lord's Passover. Our salvation is accomplished, the new creation is completed, and the gates of Heaven are opened once again. These three days are celebrated as one. We begin with the Mass of Holy Thursday which is the commemoration of the Last Supper and the Commandment of Love; we continue on Good Friday, to fulfill what was done with bread and wine and words on Holy Thursday, to commemorate the death of the Lord on the Cross; we continue on Holy Saturday evening to celebrate what the death of the Lord accomplished through His resurrection and we end with the blessing and are sent forth. These are truly holy and beautiful celebrations, filled with much life. Let us now enter into the celebration.
Fr. Steven Guitron

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor, Abril 10

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,
Hoy comenzamos la semana más solemne del año de la Iglesia, Semana Santa. Hoy conmemoramos la entrada triunfante de Jesús en Jerusalén. En la antigüedad y los tiempos bíblicos, las ramas de palma eran un signo de victoria. En los antiguos juegos olímpicos se otorgaba una corona de ramas de palma a los vencedores. Cuando un rey entró triunfalmente en su ciudad, las ramas de palma las agitaban hacia el. Las multitudes con tanta esperanza querían un rey que los liberara del yugo romano y esperaban que Jesús fuera quien finalmente conquistara a los romanos. Muchos católicos tienen la costumbre de colocar las ramas de palma benditas en su casa o incluso en su automóvil. ¿Estas ramas de palma que tan orgullosamente mostramos aclaman a Jesús como rey por la forma en que vivimos nuestra vida diaria? Recordemos que las mismas personas que aclamaron a Jesús como su rey agitando ramas de palma hacia él, solo unos días más tarde fueron tan fácilmente convencidos de gritar "crucifícalo." ¿Estamos fácilmente convencidos de hacer lo mismo? Qué gran recordatorio y ayuda espiritual para nosotros durante todo el año. Tal vez todavía tengas la rama de palma del año pasado en tu espacio de oración en casa o en el trabajo para ayudarte a recordar siempre aclamar a Jesús como tu Rey. Mañana, lunes de Semana Santa, El Arzobispo Gómez celebrará la Misa Crismal anual en la Catedral de Nuestra Señora de los Angeles, transmitido en vivo por facebook.com/lacatholics. Esta Misa es celebrada en nuestra Iglesia Madre por nuestro Arzobispo. Aquellos que no puedan viajar a la Catedral este año pueden participar desde sus hogares en solidaridad como Iglesia. Tradicionalmente, durante esta Misa, los sacerdotes renuevan sus votos con el Arzobispo, a las personas reunidas se les pide que oren por el clero. Además, el Arzobispo bendecirá los tres óleos que se utilizarán en la celebración de los sacramentos durante todo el año. El Aceite del Crisma-usado en el Bautismo, Confirmación, y Sagradas Ordenes. El aceite de Catecúmeno- usado en el Bautismo. El Aceite de los Enfermos- utilizado en el Sacramento de los Enfermos. Como los sacerdotes renuevan sus votos con el Arzobispo, y como él es el que bendice los Óleos, el ministerio del Arzobispo, como pastor principal de la Iglesia local de Los Ángeles, está presente en la vida sacramental de la Iglesia. Después de la Misa Crismal, estos aceites serán llevados a San José para su uso durante todo el año. El Triduo, la celebración del Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo y Sábado de Gloria, es la conmemoración de la Pascua del Señor. Nuestra salvación se cumple, Se ha completado la nueva creación, y las puertas del Cielo se abren una vez más. Estos tres días se celebran como uno solo. Comenzamos con la Misa del Jueves Santo que es la conmemoración de la Última Cena y el Mandamiento del Amor; continuamos el Viernes Santo, para cumplir lo que se hizo con pan, vino y palabras el Jueves Santo, para conmemorar la muerte del Señor en la Cruz; continuamos el Sábado de Gloria por la noche para celebrar lo que la muerte del Señor logró a través de Su resurrección y terminamos con la bendición y somos enviados. Estas son celebraciones verdaderamente santas y hermosas, llenas de mucha vida.
Entremos ahora en la celebración.

On a bleak Friday afternoon, our savior Jesus Christ was crucified at Golgotha, "the place of the skull."

Today, we have our own Golgotha: the abortion clinic, where 2,000 years after the Crucifixion, His image is violently destroyed, again and again, by abortion.

Through His Holy Passion, Our Lord united Himself with all innocent victims of suffering and cruelty through the ages—and none is more innocent than the child killed in the womb.

This Good Friday join your fellow pro-lifers at Golgotha—the abortion clinic in your community—to offer an ecumenical "Way of the Cross for Victims of Abortion."

The importance of boundaries in ministry

Good ministry occurs when a person establishes and respects healthy boundaries with the people he or she is trying to serve. Those who work in ministry have to be aware of healthy boundaries and what is and is not appropriate for these scenarios, because the risk of violation can cause serious harm. Good boundaries yield healthy relationships. For more on how to establish boundaries in ministry, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Preserving boundaries in ministry" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

La importancia de los límites en el ministerio

El buen ministerio ocurre cuando una persona establece y respeta límites saludables con las personas a las que está tratando de servir. Quienes trabajan en el ministerio deben ser conscientes de los límites saludables y de lo que es y no es apropiado para estos escenarios, porque el riesgo de violación puede causar daños graves. Los buenos límites producen relaciones saludables.
