Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 5

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As I write to you the outlook of my calendar looks a little overwhelming as I look forward to the season of Lent, our planning for our parish celebration for our patron, Saint Joseph for March 19th and April 30th, and all the activity that go with this season of the year. It is in the midst of all this, that I must take a step away for my annual spiritual retreat. Twice a year every priest must make a week long spiritual retreat. I usually take one of those retreats just before the season of Lent as my lent preparation. Fr. Everardo will be taking his retreat next month. For my spiritual retreat I travel to a retreat center called Feather Rock in Texas. It is located in the middle of ranch land. This is a perfect setting for me to be out of the hustle and bustle of busy city life. This retreat is lead by an Opus Dei priest who will give three to four conferences each day, each followed by private quiet time for prayer and reflection. As saint Paul spoke of himself as being all things for all people, I must take this time to rest, be still and quiet with the Lord to consider my calling as a priest and as your pastor. In the midst of the business of His ministry, with all the sick, possessed and downtrodden pressing in on Jesus, even Peter demands a favor from Jesus. Jesus heals Peter's mother-in-law while hoping to get a little rest at his home before getting back to work. As the gospel of Mark tells us, because there was so much work to do, Jesus woke up very early, while everyone was still asleep, and went to an out of the way place to pray. Two Sundays ago, in the gospel of Saint Matthew, Jesus announced, "repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Then He called Andrew and his brother Simon Peter, and John and his brother James, to follow Him. As we began Jesus' Sermon on the Mount last Sunday, we will be lead through the plan of life that Jesus lays out for us as the "Blessed." Today, Jesus continues His sermon – "You are the salt of the earth. ... You are the light of the world." As a priest, as a baptized member of the Church, I must consider these things. I must renew my response to Jesus as He calls me to follow Him. I must take stalk of my life as I strive to live out His plan for me to be one of the "Blessed." I must continue to discern how I am to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. As I take this retreat, I am reminded of the call of Saint John Paul to all the baptized to find time every year to go on retreat. Of course, not everyone can go on a week-long retreat, but at least try a day or a weekend. Please keep me in your prayers this week and know that you are in my prayers throughout this week as well.

Blessings,

Fr. Steven Guitron

Quinto Domingo Del Tiempo Ordinario
5 de Febrero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

Mientras les escribo, la perspectiva de mi calendario parece un poco abrumador espero con anticipación la temporada de Cuaresma, Nuestra planificación para nuestra celebración parroquial para nuestro patrón, San Jose el 19 de Marzo y el 30 de April, y Toda la actividad que acompaña a esta estación del año. Está en medio de todo esto, que debo dar un paso para mi retiro espiritual anual. Dos veces al año, cada sacerdote debe hacer un retiro espiritual de una semana. Por lo general, tomo uno de esos retiros justo antes de la temporada de Cuaresma como mi preparación de Cuaresma. El P. Everardo tomará su retiro el próximo mes. Para mi retiro espiritual viajo a un centro de retiro llamado Feather Rock en Texas. Se encuentra en medio de un rancho. Este es un escenario perfecto para mí para estar fuera del ajetreo y el bullicio de la ajetreada vida de la ciudad. Este retiro está dirigido por un sacerdote del Opus Dei que dará de tres a cuatro conferencias cada día, cada uno seguido de un tiempo de silencio privado para la oración y la reflexión. Como san Pablo habló de sí mismo como siendo todas las cosas para todas las personas, Debo tomarme este tiempo para descansar, Quédate quieto y callado con el Señor para considerar mi llamado como sacerdote y como tu pastor. En medio de los asuntos de Su ministerio, con todos los enfermos, poseídos y oprimidos presionando a Jesús, incluso Pedro exige un favor de Jesús. Jesús sana a la suegra de Pedro mientras espera descansar un poco en su casa antes de volver al trabajo. Como nos dice el evangelio de Marcos, porque había mucho trabajo por hacer, Jesús se despertó muy temprano, mientras todos dormían, y fue a un lugar apartado para orar. Hace dos domingos, en el evangelio de San Mateo, Jesus anuncio, "Arrepentíentanse porque el reino de los cielos esta cerca." Luego llamó a Andrés y a su hermano Simón Pedro, y a Juan y a su hermano Santiago, para seguirlo. Cuando comenzamos el Sermón del Monte de Jesús el domingo pasado, seremos guiados a través del plan de vida que Jesús establece para nosotros como los "Dichosos" hoy, Jesús continúa su sermón - "Tú eres la sal de la tierra. ... Tú eres la luz del mundo." como sacerdote, como miembro bautizado de la Iglesia, Debo considerar estas cosas. Debo renovar mi respuesta a Jesús mientras Él me llama a seguirlo. Debo tomar el tallo de mi vida mientras me esfuerzo por vivir Su plan para que yo sea uno de los "Dichosos" Debo continuar discerniendo cómo voy a ser la sal de la tierra y la luz del mundo. Mientras tomo este retiro, Me recuerda la llamada de San Juan Pablo a todos los bautizados para encontrar tiempo cada año para ir de retiro. Claro, No todos pueden ir a un retiro de una semana, Pero al menos intente un día o un fin de semana. Por favor, manténganme en sus oraciones esta semana y sepan que ustedes también están en mis oraciones durante toda esta semana.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Steven Guitron
